

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

WANTED - a talented Invercargill female singer who would like the opportunity to win the Foveaux Harmony Chorus $2000 scholarship funded by the Invercargill Licensing Trust.

Chorus member Evelyn Buick said applications were now open for all women aged between 13 to 25 years who would use the money to further their singing knowledge or career.

It is the fourth year the ILT has funded the scholarship which provides a unique opportunity for Southland artists to further their careers, Mrs Buick said. "Last year's winner Paula McKenzie has used the money to receive further tuition in Wellington."

ILT chairman Alan Dennis said part of the organisation's commitment was to develop the arts in Invercargill.

"This scholarship provides an avenue for talented young women to extend their potential and perhaps even take their talent to another level."

Applications close on September 25, and auditions will be held at the Southland Girls' High School dance room on October 10. Five finalists will then be chosen to perform at a theatre restaurant held at Southland Boys' High School on October 31 in front of adjudicator and Invercargill's most famous singer Suzanne Prentice.

Application forms are available from schools, music teachers or by contacting Foveaux Harmony Chorus member Sarah Rae at sarahrae@hotmail.com.

For further information contact:

Invercargill Licensing Trust general manager Greg Mulvey on 211 3640

and/or

Foveaux Harmony Chorus member Evelyn Buick on 216 5958 or 021 045 4121